Stand for the reading of the Introductory Psalm.

While the Introductory Psalm is being read, the Priest stands in front of the holy Table and reads the so-called Lamp-lighting Prayers.

READER

Psalm 103 (104).

Bless the Lord, O my soul. O Lord my God, You are magnified exceedingly; You clothe Yourself with thanksgiving and majesty, who cover Yourself with light as with a garment, who stretch out the heavens like a curtain; You are He who covers His upper chambers with water, who makes the clouds His means of approach, who walks on the wings of the winds, who makes His angels spirits and His ministers a flame of fire. He established the earth on its stable foundation; it shall not be moved unto ages of ages. The deep like a garment is His covering; the waters shall stand upon the mountains; at Your rebuke they shall flee; at the sound of Your thunder, they shall be afraid. The mountains rise up, and the plains sink down to the place You founded for them. You set a boundary they shall not pass over; neither shall they return to cover the earth. You are He who sends springs into the valley; the waters shall pass between the mountains; they shall give drink to all the wild animals of the field; the wild asses shall quench their thirst; the birds of heaven shall dwell beside the field, the wild asses shall quench their thirst, the birds of heaven shall dwell beside them; they shall sing from the midst of the rocks. You are He who waters the mountains from His higher places; the earth shall be satisfied with the fruit of Your works. You are He who causes grass to grow for the cattle, and the green plant for the service of man, to bring forth bread from the earth; and wine gladdens the heart of man, to brighten his face with oil; and bread strengthens man's heart. The trees of the plain shall be full of fruit, the cedars of Lebanon, which You planted; there the sparrows shall make their nests; the house of the heron takes the lead among them. The high mountains are for the deer; the cliff is a refuge for the rabbits. He made the moon for seasons; the sun knows its setting. You established darkness, and it was night, wherein all the wild animals of the forest will prowl about; the young lions roar and snatch their prey, and seek their food from God. The sun arises, and they are gathered together; and they shall be put to bed in their dens. Man shall go out to his work and to his labor until evening. O Lord, Your works shall be magnified greatly; You made all things in wisdom; the earth was filled with Your creation. There is this great and spacious sea: the creeping things are there without number; the living things are there, both small and great; there the ships pass through; there is this dragon You formed to play therein. All things wait upon You, that You may give them food in due season. When You give it to them, they shall gather it; when You open Your hand, all things shall be filled with Your goodness. But when You turn Your face away, they shall be troubled; when You take away their breath, they shall die and return again to their dust. You shall send forth Your Spirit, and they shall be created, and You shall renew the face of the earth. Let the glory of the Lord be forever; the Lord shall be glad in His works; He looks upon the earth and makes it tremble; He touches the mountains, and they smoke. I will sing to the Lord all my life; I will sing to my God as long as I exist; may my words be pleasing to Him, and I shall be glad in the Lord. May sinners cease from the earth, and the lawless, so as to be no more. Bless the Lord, O my soul.

The sun knows its setting. You established darkness, and it was night.

O Lord, Your works shall be magnified greatly; You made all things in wisdom. [SAAS]

Glory to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Both now and ever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia. Glory to You, O God. (3)

Our hope, O Lord, glory to You.

Lord, I have cried to You; hear me. Hear me, O Lord. Lord, I have cried to You; hear me. Give heed to the voice of my supplication when I cry to You. Hear me, O Lord. [SAAS]

Stichera. For the Myrrhbearers.

Mode 2. Joseph took You down.

Ὅτε ἐκ τοῦ ξύλου.

If You, O Lord, should mark transgression, O Lord, who would stand? For there is forgiveness with You. [SAAS]

As they heard the Angel's joyful words, * Christ's women disciples were filled with divine and sacred joy. * Thus they were made certain of the resurrection of Him, * who for us was counted among * the dead, and for whom they * previously as Myrrh-bearers had lamented and mourned, * standing near the tomb; and they wondered * who would move the stone, and they looked up, * suddenly the stone was rolled away for them. [SD]

Because of Your law, O Lord, I waited for You; my soul waited for Your word. My soul hopes in the Lord. [SAAS]

Joy that is divine and never ends: * that is what the Myrrh-bearing women, lady disciples of Christ * gave to the Disciples that divine and sacred hand * thus obeying the order of Christ, gave to the Disciples, that divine and sacred band, thus obeying the order of the Lord's holy Angel, * who had dazzled them before with his most luminous robe. * They announced that Hades was ruined * by the all-saving resurrection * of our King and Lord who died on our behalf. [SD]

From the morning watch until night; from the morning watch until night, let Israel hope in the Lord. [SAAS]

Christ's women disciples stopped their tears, * tears that flowed from fountains of mourning and lamentation; and now * they bring the eye-witnesses of grace the joyful words. * For they come and announce to them * the Lord's resurrection, * that the Logos has arisen, bringing joy from the tomb, * and that they had wondrously heard His * voice commanding them to rejoice now, * the opposite of pain and sorrow from of old. [SD]

From Menaion - - -

For the Apostles.

Mode 1. O Martyrs, extolled.

Πανεύφημοι μάρτυρες.

For with the Lord there is mercy, and with Him is abundant redemption; and He shall redeem Israel from all his transgressions. [SAAS]

O glorious Saints, you left behind * every form of luxury, * in love with Christ as you were; and you attached your souls to Him, * following His footsteps. * You offered yourselves to Him, * all-wise Apostles Jason and Sosipater. Intercede with Him * and entreat Him that surpassing peace * and great mercy * be upon our souls bestowed. [SD]

Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; praise Him, all you peoples. [SAAS]

My soul has been darkened by the mist * of the passions, hence I pray * that you, O Jason and Sosipater, might illumine it. * By your divine teachings, * you enlightened all the world, * diminishing the gloom of idolatry and adding multitudes * of the human race to all those saved * from their error, * and led them to Christ our God. [SD]

For His mercy rules over us; and the truth of the Lord endures forever. [SAAS]

Christ our God and Savior sent you out * as Apostles to recall * the lost, O Jason and Sosipater, and to bring them back. * And He led all people * to salvation by your words * and teachings that were full of divine wisdom. Now intercede with Him, * and entreat Him that surpassing peace * and great mercy * be upon our souls bestowed. [SD]

Glory. Both now. For the Myrrhbearers.

Mode pl. 2.

The myrrh-bearing women arrived at your sepulcher, and they saw the seals on the gravestone, but they did not find Your immaculate Body, O Lord. They had come in all earnestness, and lamenting they said, "Who has stolen our hope? Who took away the dead man, naked and covered with myrrh, his mother's only consolation? He who revived the dead, oh, how has He died? He who plundered Hades, how was He buried? Nevertheless, arise, O Savior, by Your own authority, on the third day, as You said You would, and save our souls.”

PRIEST (in a low voice)

Lord our God, who inclined the heavens and came down for the salvation of humankind, look upon Your servants and Your inheritance; for they have bowed their heads and bent their necks to You, the fearsome yet compassionate Judge, not expecting human help, but awaiting Your mercy and anticipating Your salvation. Guard them at all times, this evening and the coming night, from every enemy, from all demonic activity against them, from unprofitable reflections, and from wicked thoughts.

PRIEST (aloud)

Blessed and glorified be the majesty of Your kingdom, of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, now and ever and to the ages of ages.

CHOIR: Amen.

[SD]

Resurrectional.

Verse: I lift my eyes to You, who dwell in heaven. Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hands of their masters, as the eyes of the maidservant look to the hands of her mistress, so our eyes look to the Lord our God until He shall have compassion on us.

[SAAS]

Let us join the Archangels and extol the Resurrection of Christ. He is the Redeemer and Savior of our souls; and He will come again, in awesome glory and mighty power, to judge the world which He created.

[GOASD]

For the Martyrs.

Verse: Have mercy on us, O Lord, have mercy on us, for we are greatly filled with contempt; our soul is greatly filled with it. We are a disgrace to those who prosper, and a contempt to the arrogant.

[SAAS]

The companies of Martyrs withstood the tyrants and said: We are soldiers enlisted by the King of hosts. Though you consume us with tortures and fire, yet we do not deny the power of the Trinity.
